(State names, addresses, and relationship to applicant. Strike out in case of applicant under Sec. 3 (1) or 3 (6) of Act of 1924)

I have never been refused an immigration or passport visa at any American Consulate.

I do not intend to emigrate to the United States and I consider myself as a nonimmigrant under the provisions of the Immigration Act of 1924 on the following grounds: Because I am the minor son of a domiciled Chinese merchant and admissible under Section 3 Subd. 6 of the Immigration Act of 1924.

and offer for inspection the following documents in support of my claim: affidavit cited above

I have informed myself of the provisions of the Act of February 5, 1917, particularly of the exclusion provisions of Section 3 of that Act, and of the Immigration Act of 1924, and am aware that the latter provides:

"The admission to the United States of an alien excepted from the class of immigrants * * * shall be for such time and under such conditions as may be by regulations prescribed, including, when deemed necessary, the giving of bond with sufficient security to insure that, at the expiration of such time or upon failure to maintain the status under which admitted, he will depart from the United States."

I have also informed myself of the provisions of the Deportation Act of March 4, 1929, and am aware that Sections 1 (a) and 2 of that Act provide as follows:

Sec. 1 (a): "That if any alien has been arrested or deported in pursuance of law, he shall be excluded from admission to the United States whether such deportation took place before or after the enactment of this Act, and if he enters or attempts to enter the United States after the expiration of sixty days after the enactment of this Act, he shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall, unless a different penalty is otherwise expressly provided by law, be punished by imprisonment for not more than two years or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by both such fine and imprisonment."

Sec. 2: "Any alien who hereafter enters the United States at any time or place other than as designated by immigration officials or eludes examination or inspection by immigration officials, or obtains entry to the United States by a willfully false or misleading representation or the willful concealment of a material fact, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

I realize that if I am one of a class inadmissible to the United States under any of the provisions of the immigration laws of the United States, or if my classification as a nonimmigrant alien is not approved upon arrival in the United States, I may be deported or detained by the immigration authorities, and I am prepared to assume the risks of such deportation or detention.

I solemnly swear that the foregoing statements are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.
